

TO HONOR

L. C. BECK

FIRST LIEUTENANT, U.S. ARMY AIR FORCES

Lt. Beck was a crewman on an aircraft flying in combat over Germany in World War II. With his plane having been shot down, he was captured and incarcerated at a "concentration camp" near Buchenwald, Germany (Konzentration Lager Buchenwalde). He died there in the brutal and hostile environment of the Gestapo.

BY HIS FELLOW CONCENTRATION CAMP POWS (THE KLB KLUB)
(Listed on next page)