

TO HONOR

DONALD ROOT STROTHER

CAPTAIN, U.S. ARMY AIR FORCES

Captain Strother was in the 7th Bomb Group sent to the Dutch East Indies in December of 1941. This B-17 Group, without fighter escort, was in continuous combat against Japanese air and naval invasion forces, blunting and delaying their advance. Captain Strother was Group Commander when killed in action on 13 February 1942. He was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross posthumously.
